3. The Auctioneers act in all respects only as agents for the Vendor and it shall be deemed that no condition or warranty expressed or implied has in any circumstances been given by the Auctioneers or any servant of the Auctioneers, whether as to title, description, the quality of any lot sold or otherwise. The Auctioneers and their servants shall not incur any liability to the Purchaser in respect of any defect of title, error of description or imperfection or in respect of any announcement or statement relating to or affecting any lot offered for sale whether made orally or in writing and whether given before, during or after the auction, nor shall they incur any liability in relation to any dispute between any Purchaser and Vendor.

10. If, notwithstanding Condition 8 above, the Auctioneer permits the Purchaser to remove his lot from the sale premises prior to payment in full having been received then:
 - (a) Ownership of the same shall remain with the Vendor and no property in the lot whether legal or equitable shall pass from the Vendor to the Purchaser until payment of the full price has been received in cleared funds by the Auctioneer or the Vendor (as the case may be). Payment shall, unless otherwise agreed, be made to the Auctioneers.
 - (b) the Purchaser undertakes to house the lot on his premises separate from his own and those of any other person and in such manner as makes it readily identifiable as the Vendor's;

 - (d) the Vendor or the Auctioneers may for the purpose of examination or recovery of any lot remaining unpaid enter upon any premises, where it is housed or where it is reasonably thought to be housed;
 - (e) if the Purchaser shall sell on the lot, then such part of the proceeds of such resale as equates to the full price of the lot remaining unpaid shall be held by the Purchaser in a separate bank account as trustee thereof on the Vendor's behalf.
11. Without prejudice to any other right or remedy of the Vendor or the Auctioneers, if the Purchaser shall be in breach of any other Composite Conditions, the Vendor or the Auctioneers shall have power to resell the lot(s) purchased by the Purchaser retaining any surplus and charging any deficiency or expense to the Purchaser.
12. Neither the Vendor nor the Auctioneers will be responsible for any accidents or injury, not arising out of their negligence, which happens to any person or property while on the sale premises. Vehicles are parked at their owner's risk.

FOREWORD

Simon and Amanda Meyrick started farming at Great Wedlock in 1993. They took on the herd which had been farmed by Simon's grandfather, Sir Thomas and then his father, Sir David who farmed them from 1967. The herd has always been managed on a commercial basis with a period of milking 3x daily producing yields in excess of 12,000 litres before milk quotas started to bite and we took the decision to convert to Organic production in 2000.

There was an oversupply of Organic milk for a couple of years but we stuck at it and thanks to some great work by OMSCO the premiums started to build. In 2015 we started supplying milk into the PWAB pool.

Neither of us would profess to be experts in cow breeding but we have been lucky enough to have had some great staff over the years who have never been frightened to give us their opinion. Ollie Cromwell convinced us to use Aerostar in the mid 90's and he was used across everything for a number of years with Comestar Lee being used after that. For the last 7 years we have used Genus Sire-match with only sexed semen being used for the last 2 years.

We have enjoyed the challenge of farming organically, particularly the PWAB pool, but credit for how the cows look must go to our staff who have all been with us for some time. Mike Ansell in particular whose father Colin worked for my Grandfather, Father and us before he started here.

The herd of cows have been bred to last, but still produce good volumes of high quality, Organic milk. They are good framed, powerful cows with good udders, legs and feet. We hope you will be as impressed with the herd as both Gwilym and Jason were and wish you all well with your purchases.
