£3,220 COW | £2,900 HEIFER | 8 OVER £2,750

A very good trade for the best with cows selling to £3,220 and heifers to £2,900.

The top price of £3,220 was for a third calver from Ray Brown & Partners, Holmes Chapel. A second calver from LF Horton & Sons, Northwich sold for £2,850.

DI Ball & Son, Sandbach topped the heifers selling at £2,900 with another at £2,500.

Richard Bown, Worcester averaged £2,800 for three heifers selling at £2,820, £2,800 and £2,780.

Other heifers over £2,500 were £2,820 Ray Brown & Partners, £2,750 LF Horton & Son and £2,500 HS & A Callwood, Knutsford.

In-calf heifers due in February / March sold to £1,480.

The lesser quality attracted limited interest which is expected with the substantial price cuts from milk buyers. However, there was a buyer for every animal with all cattle selling over £1,000.

Averages:

32 Fresh Heifers (all faults/breeds) £1,951

14 Fresh Cows (all faults/breeds) £1,864

5 Served Heifers £1,322
