

ROSS DAIRY SALES

Thursday 6th December 2012

12 Forward

Auctioneer: Gwilym Richards

Sale at 11 am

A smaller entry but of better quality was forward for the Christmas Show & Sale.

First time consignors Graham and Anne James of Caldicot, Monmouthshire, swept the board winning both the heifer and cow sections as well as the overall champion.

The judge Russell Albert of Tenbury Wells, Worcestershire, awarded the champion rosette to the heifer Carrowhill Mr Sam Lavender which sold for 2,050gns to Amos Partners of Goodrich, Herefordshire.

Messrs Amos also gave 2,050gns for the best cow, the 2nd calver Carrowhill Atom Janet, which was giving 38kgs daily.

The Carrowhill entry of 4 cattle averaged £2,047.50.

Other heifers sold to 1,850gns and cows also to 1,850gns.

The overall average was £1,732.50.
