A good entry of dairy cattle forward today, filling the dairy shed once again.

All qualities were on offer with the best selling to a good premium. Second quality selling to similar levels to previous weeks but third quality slightly harder to place.

Today's section was topped by GFA. & BJ. Williams, Hay-On-Wye for their super fresh heifer giving 34kg a day she sold to £2,300 and their other heifer sold to £2,110.

Other regular vendors The Whitticase Family, St Martins sold to £1,980 and Skinner Bros, Melton Mowbray to £1,960.

Plenty of second quality ranging £1,600 to £1,880 with others £1,700 and above.

Cows were fast and furious - with Malcom Trevor-Jones, The Elms selling his second calver to £1,980. Mr J.E. Blackshaw, Lower Stretton consigned their first cattle after deciding to disperse their herd, these topped at £1,900 for a third calved cow and sixth calved cows at £1,660.

Bulls topped at £1,900 for a Limousin bull from Mr A. Sayer, Hilderstone.

Averages:

First Quality Heifers £2,021

Second Quality Heifers £1,780

First Quality Cow £2,017
