Another fantastic entry of 85 in the dairy lines today for this month's show and sale supported by Western Holstein Club and kindly sponsored by Bulls From Bidlea Dairy.

Our Judge Mr Kelly Hill picked out lot five Summerfield Davinci Review 2 for his Champion, sired by De-Su Davinci and calved just one week she sold at £4,000 from Summerfield Holsteins, Newcastle. Not so many first quality cattle forward this week but other first quality heifers from Tomkinson Farms, Gnosall to £3,880 and Hilltop Farming, Budworth £3,580 and £3,000.

A lot more cows forward this week and these would have been better quality than the heifers. Lachstone Farms, Northwich consigned a strong, milky bunch of seven cows with all but one making over £3,000. Top price was lot twenty-one Lachstone Mendel P Susie sold giving 53kgs daily with her second calf, the hammer fell at an impressive £4,100, their other cows £4,050, £3,800, £3,780, £3,150 and £3,000.

Dispersing vendors L.F. Horton & Sons, Northwich sold lot fourteen Heathleigh Lighthouse present to £3,900. Also at £3,000 were W.&J. Nadin, Eart Sterndale.

A run of strong dry cows, which were out of the calving block from JWP Farming, Lutterworth sold to £1,920 and £1,900 x 5.

One Aberdeen stock bull to £2,500 and calves to £220. Cross bred incalf heifers to £1,900.
